About NAWL

The National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL), founded over 100 years ago, is the leading voluntary organization devoted to the interests of women lawyers and women's legal rights. NAWL has thousands of members in all 50 states working in law firms, corporate legal departments, government, military, academia, non-profits as well as law students.

NAWL's recent activities and accomplishments to advance its mission include:

- The annual General Counsel Institute, now in its fifth year, dedicated to helping in-house counsel excel at the highest levels
- The annual NAWL Survey, now in its fourth year, tracks important and unprecedented data in law firms about women's advancement
- "NAWL National Nights of Giving," a series of philanthropic networking events held throughout the country to bring women together while benefiting local organizations which focus on empowering women and children
- "From Backpack to Briefcase," a program aimed at helping law students transition from law school to the workplace
- A national mentoring program that pairs experienced lawyers with young practitioners from around the country
- "Ready to On-Ramp?", a program designed to help women who have left practice return to the workplace
- "National Leadership Summit: Actions for Advancing Women Into Law Firm Leadership," a report which provides action steps for law firms as they implement efforts to retain and promote women lawyers into the highest ranks of private practice
- Amicus support in the United States Supreme Court on issues of concern to women
- The continuing series, "Taking Charge of Your Career," designed to provide the skills women lawyers need to reach leadership positions
- Publication of cutting-edge articles in the Women Lawyers Journal
- Publication of the Ninth Edition of the National Directory of Women Lawyers and Women-Owned Law Firms, designed to assist in-house counsel to locate female lawyers and to assist lawyers with referring legal work

Please take a moment to join the National Association of Women Lawyers. NAWL welcomes membership of individuals, law firms, corporate legal departments, law schools and bar associations. NAWL relies on membership dues and sponsorship to help achieve our goals.
