Mentor Responsibilities:

The roles a mentor adopts will differ, depending on the mentee. Generally, mentors will:

- Help junior lawyers navigate through their careers.
- Motivate your mentee through encouragement and support.
- Provide constructive feedback to promote professional growth.
- Help your mentee develop his/her professional interests and set realistic goals.
- Project high standards of professionalism and a positive attitude.

Any additional information that you feel would help us match you with a mentee:

Once you are matched with a mentee, you will be notified via email with the mentee's information along with the date and time of the orientation/training call with NAWL. Currently, matches are expected to be made in January, 2010. Please go to www.nawl.org for more information and to download the summary of expectations for mentor and mentee participants in the program.
