About Sara Holtz

ClientFocus founder Sara Holtz helps successful women lawyers become successful rainmakers. Since 1995, Sara has worked with hundreds of women lawyers from the nation's leading law firms to help them grow their practices. Prior to founding ClientFocus in 1995, Sara Holtz, a Harvard Law School graduate, practiced law in-house, serving as Vice President and General Counsel of Nestle Beverage Company and Division Counsel for the Clorox Company. She was the first woman chairman of the Association of Corporate Counsel and is the author of "Bringin' in the Rain: A Woman Lawyer's Guide to Business Development".
